

The Prophetic Maker Manifesto

Prophetic Order of Emerging Makers

"And David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skillful hands he led them." – Psalm 78:72

I. The Crisis

The world does not lack talent. It lacks trustworthy talent. We have crowned the clever and buried the good. We have confused competence with character and momentum with meaning. Institutions crack because the people who built them forgot who they were becoming.

II. The Vision

We believe the greatest leadership crisis is the absence of leaders who unite sharp intelligence with unbreakable ethical grounding — the David archetype. A prophetic maker sees what is not yet, builds what should be, and refuses the counterfeit victories of shortcut, spectacle, and self.

III. The Five Pillars

Clarity — We see clearly before we speak boldly.

Character — We are the same in the cave as on the throne.

Competence — We honor God by mastering our craft.

Courage — We act while others analyze.

Servant Leadership — We lead by lifting.

IV. The Commitment

We commit to shepherd with integrity of heart and lead with skillful hands. We refuse cynicism as a personality and complexity as an excuse. We build in public, repent in private, and measure our lives by the good we release, not the noise we make.

"And who knows but that you have come to your position for such a time as this?" – Esther 4:14
